

In 2012 Life Spirals proudly presents:

Original Play Workshop

with International Guest Fred Donaldson PhD

Play Specialist, Educational Consultant and Aikidoist. This is his first visit to Australia!

Original play is natural play that is loving, inclusive, embraces all abilities and builds a sense of connection and belonging.

Fred is a former professor who taught at the Universities of Washington and California State Hayward, and the California School of Professional Psychology. Fred pioneered the study of Original Play, having researched the subject with children, adults and wild animals for over the past 25 years. Fred travels internationally lecturing and playing with diverse groups of people and organizations.

Fred is the author of the Pulitzer-Prize nominated book "Playing by Heart."
